Roger Rubin
Answers the question...

What do men want?

In this half-day training Roger will explore men’s identity and sexuality through their handwriting and offer an answer to this puzzling question.

Tuition: $45 per person

Pre-conference workshop
October 23rd
1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Embassy Suites Mandalay Bay
2101 Mandalay Beach Rd.
Oxnard CA 93035

This pre-conference workshop is a don’t-miss! It’s a rare treat to have the opportunity to study with one of the masters in the field. Roger Rubin was introduced to graphology in 1971 by Felix Klein. Using the gestalt, psychologically-oriented method Felix brought with him from Europe, Roger teaches a weekly master class in handwriting analysis in Manhattan, NY. He has published several monographs on diverse topics related to handwriting and personality.

Register at www.ahafhandwriting.org/registration
www.ahafhandwriting.org/conferences
For more information: sheila@sheilalowe.com